EXAMINATION FOR THE MEDICAL STAFF.

An examination of Candidates for 12 Commissions in the Medical Staff of Her Majesty's Army will be held at the University of London, Burlington Gardens, W. (by permission of the Senate), on the 6th February 1893 and following days.

VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette of the 9th December 1892.)

War Office, December 9, 1892.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the under-mentioned Soldier of Her Majesty's Army, whose claim has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for the conspicuous bravery displayed by him during the attack on the stockaded town of Tonintaba, Gambia River, on the 13th March 1892, as recorded against his name:—

Regiment.	Name.	Act of Courage for which recommended.
The West India Regiment.	No. 2929. Lance-Corporal William James Gordon.	During the attack on the town of Tonintaba, Major G. C. Madden, West India Regiment, who was in Command of the Troops, was superintending a party of twelve men who were endeavouring with a heavy beam to break down the South Gate of the town, when suddenly a number of musket muzzles were projected through a double row of loop-holes which had been masked. Some of these were within two or three yards of that Officer's back, and before he realised what had happened Lance-Corporal Gordon threw himself between Major Madden and the muskets, pushing that Officer out of the way, and exclaiming "Look out, Sir!" At the same moment Lance-Corporal Gordon was shot through the lungs. By his bravery and self-devotion on this occasion the Lance-Corporal probably saved the life of his Commanding Officer.

Issued with Army Orders, dated 1st December 1892.

ARMY ADVERTISEMENTS, GREAT BRITAIN.

1. No expense for advertisements inserted in unauthorized newspapers can (except in special cases) be admitted as a charge against the public.

2. Messrs. R. F. White & Son, of 33, Fleet Street, London, are the sole agents to this office for advertisements inserted in newspapers in the United Kingdom, and advertisements for Metropolitan papers will be sent direct to them for insertion.

3. Advertisements for Provincial papers will be sent direct to the respective editors, who should be instructed to claim payment from Messrs. R. F. White & Son, to whom they should forward their accounts and vouchers.

4. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having, in a minute dated 11th March, 1850, enjoined on the various public departments the strictest economy in the expenditure on the publication of Government advertisements, a copy of their Lordships' minute is annexed for the information and guidance of the several branches of the War Department, and strict attention will be paid to it.

5. In drawing up advertisements all unnecessary detail will be omitted, and a note will be inserted referring persons to the proper Officer of the War Department for all further particulars. Advertisements for contracts will be confined to a description of the general nature of the proposed tender, and of the articles required.

6. Except in special cases, one insertion only will be ordered.

7. Advertisements will be limited to those papers which have the largest general or local circulation, or to those which from their professional, or class, character would appear to be best suited for the purpose. In order that Officers in the United Kingdom may be enabled to make the most judicious selections, they will, if need be, obtain the advice of Messrs. R. F. White & Son, the Advertising Agents. It is, however, to be clearly understood that no paper must be selected which is not contained in the authorized list.

Copy of Treasury Minute, dated 11th March, 1850.

"My Lords have under their consideration the large amount paid annually for Government advertisements, and the number of newspapers in which those advertisements are published.

"My Lords are well aware of the importance of giving every needful publicity to advertisements inviting tenders for Public Service, in order to secure as large an amount of competition as possible, but it appears to their Lordships that the cost of their publication might be considerably reduced without injury to the Public Service, if the Heads of the several Departments were to give directions for confining the advertisements to a description of the general nature of the proposed tender and of the articles required, omitting all unnecessary detail, and with the insertion of a note referring persons to the Department for all further particulars, a practice which my Lords observe has been adopted in the Department of the Secretary of State for India.

"My Lords request, therefore, that the matter may receive the attention of the Departments of Government in which numerous and extensive tenders are necessarily invited by public advertisements with a view to a saving of expense to the public by the adopting shorter forms of advertisements in future."

A.O. 12.—Coastwise Passages.

With reference to the List of Fares issued with Army Order 382 of 1890, the use of the steamer from Dover to Waterford has been discontinued. The boat from Waterford to Dover will still be used.

ENGINEER REGULATIONS.A.O. 13.—Bills.

The following will be substituted for para. 571:—

571. All claims which may be certified and marked as chargeable against the Works Vote for any particular financial year should be paid on or before the 31st March of that year. Bills for work performed during the last quarter of the financial year should, as a rule, reach the War Office, or the Office of the District Paymaster, by the 20th March at the latest, and every effort will be made to measure up work to the latest possible date. Payment of claims received at the War Office after the 25th March cannot be insured during the current financial year.

In cases in which a bill passed by a Sub-District Commanding Royal Engineer for payment has not been paid by the District Paymaster before the 31st March, the Paymaster will, after payment, communicate with the Sub-District Commanding Royal Engineer, and the amount of the bill will be charged to the Vote for the new financial year. The Sub-District Commanding Royal Engineer will report the facts of the case to the Adjutant-General, and will state whether there will be any savings in the same parts of the Vote for the new financial year, from which the amount can be defrayed.

As few bills as possible should be left for payment in the latter half of the March quarter.

EQUIPMENT REGULATIONS.

A.O. 14.—Horse Shoes.

The Equipment Regulations, 1890, will be amended as follows:—

1. The following will be substituted for paras. 193 to 197:—

193. In making requisitions, Commanding Officers will demand shoes for one-half of the number of horses present, but not more at one time than three sets of shoes, with nails, per horse, this number of sets being presumably sufficient for three months. No greater proportion of shoes will be allowed without a certificate from the Veterinary Officer, countersigned by the Commanding Officer, explaining the exceptional circumstances which have rendered additional supplies necessary.

194. Shoes, in equal proportions of fore and hind, for one-half of the number of horses on the establishment, will be made in the regimental forges out of the worn shoes removed from the horses, and any iron that may be required in addition will be supplied by the Ordnance Store Department on a requisition from the Veterinary Officer, countersigned by the Commanding Officer.

195. Nail-rod, for making nails in the following proportions, will be supplied from the Ordnance Store Department on requisition from Commanding Officers:—

Rod, nail, $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch.

Regiments on the highest establishment	16 lbs. per squadron per month.
Other regiments	12 lbs. per squadron per month.

196. When regiments march from one station to another, one fore and one hind shoe (with nails) will be carried on each horse. Commanding officers will arrange to send forward, as regimental heavy baggage, to such points in the line of march as may be most convenient, any further numbers likely to be required on the march, not exceeding one set per horse for the entire strength and will return the remainder into store. The shoes removed from the horses' feet on the march will be returned to store, should opportunity offer, and will be forwarded in like manner to the station to which the regiment is proceeding, unless they can be conveniently carried by the regimental transport or in the shoe cases. When the route of the regiment lies through an Ordnance Store station, any shoes required will be drawn there, so as to obviate, as far as possible, the expense of sending shoes forward by rail. Any old shoes may, at the same time, be returned to store, and a similar number of old shoes may be drawn on the arrival of the regiment at its destination, if necessary.

197. On arrival at their new station, Commanding Officers will demand from store the balance of shoes and nails due to them on the quarter's supply.

2. Para. 199 is hereby cancelled.

FINANCIAL INSTRUCTIONS.

A.O. 15.—Payment of Claims within the Financial Year.

1. The following will be inserted after para. 157:—

157A. All claims which may be certified and marked as chargeable against an Army Vote for any particular financial year will, if possible, be paid on or before the 31st March of that year. In any case where this is found impracticable, the Paymaster will communicate with the department concerned, explaining why payment cannot be made.

All negotiable receipts issued between the 10th and 24th of March will be made payable within six days after date, in order to secure payment being made before the end of the month.

From the 25th March until the end of that month negotiable receipts will not be issued, but all payments will be made either by cheque, or in cash.

All bills received in the Paymaster's Office, before mid-day, on the 31st of March will be paid on that day.

2. Para. 292 will be omitted.

MILITIA OFFICERS—REGULATIONS FOR COMMISSIONS IN THE ARMY.

A.O. 16.—Medical Examination.

The following will be substituted for para. 24 of the regulations issued with Army Order 256 of 1891, as amended by Army Order 292 of 1892:—

24. Successful candidates will be inspected by a Medical Board after the competitive examination; and no candidate will be considered eligible for a commission unless certified by the Board to be physically fit in all respects for Her Majesty's Service.

SCHOOL REGULATIONS.

A.O. 17.—First Class Certificates of Education.

The following amendments will be made in the Army School Regulations, 1891:—

1. In para. 141, in the column headed "Qualifying aggregate," "300" will be substituted for "330."

2. In para. 142, the following will be substituted for the second sentence:—

"In English History, one-half of the questions will be devoted to the events of the period from the accession of William and Mary. Only general knowledge of the most remarkable events, persons, &c., of the history of the preceding period will be required. In the assignment of marks, regard will be had to the manner in which the answers are written, i.e., to composition and clearness of expression, and to correctness of spelling, punctuation, and grammar. (See Appendix X.)"

3. The following will be substituted for para. 145:—

145. The examination for a 1st Class Certificate of Education will be conducted in accordance with the following rules:—

(a.) The five subjects enumerated in para. 141 may be taken up in two groups as follows:—

(1.) Dictation, arithmetic, and copying MS. The qualifying aggregate for these three subjects will be 190.

(2.) English history and geography. The qualifying aggregate for these two subjects will be 110. All the subjects in each group must be taken up at one examination.

(b.) A candidate who takes up the five subjects at one examination and fails in one subject only, will, provided he obtains the necessary aggregate, be re-examined in that one subject only.

145A. A candidate who fails in one or more subjects, in the examination for 2nd and 3rd class certificates, will be required to pass in all subjects at a future examination.

A candidate failing in the examination for the certificate for which he is brought forward shall not be awarded any lower certificate, except that a candidate for a 2nd class certificate may be awarded a 3rd class certificate, if he obtains 40 marks in dictation, and three-fifths of the marks allotted to Sections A and B in the Arithmetic paper.

4. With reference to the amendment of para. 142 made by this Army Order, it is hereby notified that in the examination in March, 1893, half the questions will be set on the period from the accession of George I., as before.

STORES—PRICED VOCABULARY OF.

A.O. 18.—Hides—Method of Accounting for.

The practice which has hitherto obtained at some stations of holding hides on charge by number, instead of by weight, as prescribed in the detail column of page 149 of the Priced Vocabulary of Stores, 1886, will be discontinued, and a transfer will be at once made from number to weight in all store accounts concerned.

Requisitions, based on the tables in the Equipment Regulations, in which the proportions are shown as whole hides, or fractions thereof, will still be prepared as therein authorized; but Ordnance Store Officers will, after selecting from their stock the numbers required, weigh the same, and charge the weights of the respective hides or fractions to the Officers demanding them, who will also similarly account for the material.

VOLUNTEER REGULATIONS.

A.O. 19.—Revised Regulations for the Volunteer Force, 1892.

1. Revised Regulations for the Volunteer Force have been approved, and will shortly be issued for the information and guidance of all concerned.

2. The following Army Orders are hereby cancelled:—

Army Order 398 of 1890.

Army Orders 58, 159, 160, 202, 223, 243, 266, and 267 of 1891.

Army Orders 41 (as regards Volunteers), 58 (as regards Volunteers), 68, 103, 132 (with the Instructions thereby promulgated, as regards the Volunteers) and 160 of 1892.

Amendments as under will be made in the Regulations for the Volunteer Force, 1892:—

A.O. 20.—Brigade Camps.

The following will be substituted for paras. 283 and 574A:—

283. A Brigade Camp will consist of not less than three battalions.

574A. A battalion attending a Brigade Camp, if 800 strong (all ranks) or upwards, will receive allowances for a Brigade Camp. A battalion attending a Brigade Camp with less than 800 (all ranks) will receive the allowances for a Regimental Camp only.

A.O. 21.—Expenses for Conveyance of Guns.

The following will be added to para. 591:—

"Before, however, any expenditure is incurred, an estimate of the cost of conveyance should be submitted to the General Officer Commanding the District for approval, in order that he may ensure that the best and most economical means of transport are employed.

"Claims for the amount due will be forwarded to the District Paymaster for adjustment without previous reference to the Secretary of State.

YEOMANRY REGULATIONS.

A.O. 22.—Organization.

The following changes in the organization of the Yeomanry have been approved, with effect from 1st April, 1893, and are promulgated for general information. Pending the introduction of these changes, gradual reduction, as vacancies arise, will be made in the number of Adjutants and non-commissioned officers serving on the Permanent Staff.

Squadron Organisation.

1. Yeomanry regiments will be organized in squadrons.
2. Squadrons will have a maximum establishment of 100 enrolled members and a minimum establishment of 70 efficient.
3. For the present a deficiency in one squadron may be made good by an excess in another in the same corps. Commanding Officers should, however, equalize their squadrons as far as possible. After the 1st April, 1896, any squadron which falls below 70 efficient members will be liable to be broken up.
4. The number of squadrons in each regiment, with its establishment, is given in Appendix A, pages 204, 205.

Permanent Staff.

5. The Permanent Staff of a Yeomanry regiment will consist of one non-commissioned officer for general duties, and one for each squadron.
6. After 1st April, 1893, any non-commissioned officers of the present Permanent Staff who may be surplus to the establishment described in the preceding paragraph, will be liable to be sent back to their regiments as vacancies arise for their reception, or to be retired on pension, if qualified. The Commanding Officer will select those he desires to retain.
7. Any non-commissioned officers of the present Permanent Staff who may not desire to serve under the new conditions will be allowed to rejoin their regiments; or, if qualified, to retire on pension.

Brigade Organisation.

8. Yeomanry regiments will be associated together in brigades. The constitution and title of each brigade, and also its allotment on mobilization, are given in Appendix A. The Pembrokeshire Yeomanry remain as a separate corps.

General Officers Commanding Districts will report, in due course, the most suitable place for the head-quarters of each brigade for purposes of correspondence on brigade subjects, &c.

9. Yeomanry regiments forming a brigade will train together in brigade camp at least once in every three years.
10. The senior Commanding Officer of the regiments of a brigade will command the brigade. He will not be gazetted. All questions affecting the action or administration of the regiments as a brigade will be referred to him. Apart from such questions the discipline, training, and interior economy of each corps will be, as at present, under its own Commanding Officer.

Under special circumstances an Officer of the Regular Army may be detailed to command a brigade when assembled in a brigade camp, if such a course be recommended by the General Officer Commanding the district.

11. One Adjutant only per brigade will be allowed, and vacancies amongst existing Adjutants will be absorbed as they occur. When supernumerary Adjutants have been absorbed, the remaining Adjutant in each brigade will be gazetted as Brigade Adjutant.

So long as more than one Adjutant remains in a brigade, the senior will act as Brigade Adjutant, but will not be gazetted.

12. So long as there is more than one Adjutant in a brigade, each one will supervise the drill, training, &c., of his own corps as at present, the additional functions of the Brigade Adjutant being limited to dealing with brigade matters and the correspondence connected therewith, under the instructions of the Colonel Commanding the brigade. As the number of Adjutants per brigade is reduced this Officer will perform the Adjutant's duties of all the corps in the brigade. The allotment of his duties between the different regiments will be arranged by the Colonel Commanding the brigade, after consultation with the other Commanding Officers. In case of difference of opinion the General Officer Commanding the district will decide.

13. In certain brigades it may be found necessary to appoint a Yeomanry Officer as Assistant Adjutant. It will rest with General Officers Commanding Districts to submit any such case, and the name of a suitable Officer, for the consideration of the Adjutant-General.

Such Officer, if appointed, will not be gazetted, but will be made supernumerary in his Yeomanry regiment while holding the appointment. He will be given pay, and allowances at the rates fixed for an Acting Adjutant by paras. 205 and 206 of the Yeomanry Regulations, for the number of days in each year, not exceeding 60, during which he is actually performing duty, and travelling expenses and allowances in accordance with the Army Allowance Regulations. The allotment of his duties will be made in the same way as for the Brigade Adjutant.

14. The dates and places of permanent duty and exercise, both annually and when in brigade camp, will be arranged by General Officers Commanding Districts, who will consult Commanding Officers in order to ensure the presence of the Brigade Adjutant (when there is only one Adjutant serving in a brigade) with each regiment. For the following brigades, which are not wholly in one district, the General Officer to decide will be—

For the 3rd Brigade, the General Officer Commanding Western District.

For the 12th Brigade, the General Officer Commanding North British District.

For the 15th Brigade, the General Officer Commanding North-Western District.

15. Brigade Adjutants will be relieved from the garrison work laid down in para. 9, Sect. VIII., Queen's Regulations. They will be granted forage and stabling allowance for an additional horse.

Inspection.

16. The inspection of Yeomanry regiments will be made by, or under arrangements made by, the General Officers Commanding the districts to which they belong. For the 3rd Brigade the General Officer to inspect or arrange for the inspections, will be the General Officer Commanding Western District; for the 12th Brigade the General Officer Commanding North British District; and for the 15th Brigade the General Officer Commanding North-Western District. A technical inspection will be arranged for, from time to time, by the Inspector-General of Cavalry, or an Officer deputed by him.

Correspondence.

17. Correspondence on corps matters unconnected with the brigade will be conducted direct between the Officer Commanding the Corps and the General Officer Commanding the district. Correspondence on any matters con-

ned with the brigade will be conducted through, or by, the Colonel Commanding the brigade, with the General Officer Commanding the district. For the 3rd, 12th, and 15th Brigades this correspondence will go to the General Officers already specified.

Musketry.

18. In addition to the ammunition required for the musketry course and practice, ball ammunition up to 20 rounds per man will be issued free to Commanding Officers, on requisition, for the purpose of practice. The manner in which this ammunition shall be expended is left to the discretion of Commanding Officers.

Contingent Allowance.

19. An extra grant of 1*l.* will be made during the two years 1893 and 1894 for each non-commissioned officer, trumpeter, and private who, in addition to the requirements as to efficiency prescribed by para. 239, Yeomanry Regulations, has in the trained Yeomen's musketry course, or in the recruits' musketry course, passed out of the 3rd class.

This extra grant cannot be earned twice in the same year by the same man being exercised both as a recruit and a trained Yeoman; but the recruit who fails to pass out of the 3rd class in the recruits' course may earn the extra allowance if he passes out of the 3rd class, if exercised the same year as a trained Yeoman.
